OHIO STATE MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING 2010 BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

Buckeyes win first conference title since 1956;
Bill Wadley is Coach of the Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (Feb. 27, 2010) – Everybody just have a seat and relax for a moment. Take a deep breath. Something has just happened on the campus of Ohio State University that will make believers out of anyone who doesn't believe that dreams do come true.

Ohio State is the 2010 Big Ten swimming and diving champion! Saturday before a raucous and packed McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion crowd, the Buckeyes of swimming coach Bill Wadley and diving coach Vince Panzano captured their first Big Ten championship in 54 years with a stunning and winning total of 860.50 points. Two-time defending champion Michigan was runner-up with 715.50 points with Minnesota third with 497.

"I wanted the team to have an open mind about this championship because it is possible to surpass what others think," Wadley, named the 2010 Big Ten Coach of the Year, said at the beginning of the meet. "I told the guys to have a better day than they ever dreamed is possible."

The year was 1956 and the great Mike Peppe was Ohio State's coach when the Scarlet and Gray last hoisted a Big Ten championship trophy in swimming and diving. That win ended a glorious run of Big Ten – 12 total – and NCAA championships – 11 – for the Peppe-coached Buckeyes and the team has been fighting for a crown since. Not any more.

Marvelous & Magical McCorkle

The marvelous – and now magical – McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion gave the Ohio State coaches an incredible foundation for recruiting. And since the facility opened five years ago, the two have brought in not only talented athletes, but remarkable students – the team GPA last year was the best in the nation among all public schools – and selfless young men who this week swam and dove for something much greater than themselves. They competed for their teammates. They competed for their coaches and their parents. They competed with desire and they competed with warrior spirit. And, they competed for the pride of Ohio State University.

And, oh my, how they competed...in waves! Ohio State led all schools Saturday and for the meet with 16 more individuals in either a finals or consolation finals, increasing the number to 47 individual event scorers with 33 of those scorers competing in a final.

Fueled By Adrenalin

Saturday Ohio State placed 10 in the finals. Fueled by adrenalin and their teammates and the rush of being on the cusp of a championship – because they didn't get much sleep last night; how can one sleep when living a dream anyway? – the team performed magnificently... again.

Senior Stefan Sigrist opened the meet with goose-bump inducing and record smashing performance in the 1650 freestyle, winning in an NCAA "A" time of 14:50.46 that bested both his own school record and the McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion mark. Brent Hitchcock, Mark Nieman and George Markovic were fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively, for a 62-point event to get things started and increase Ohio State's lead to 98 points, 654.50-556.50.

Big Ten 100 backstroke champ Andrew Elliott followed with a school record of 1:42.92 to take third in the 200 back. Itai Chammah was eighth and Phil Seleskie and Markus Sievers finished ninth and 12th, respectively.

Co-captain Joel Elber went 44.0 to place fifth in the 100 freestyle with Tim Phillips ninth and Andrew Olson 14th. The 26 points they earned kept the Buckeye lead safe at 76 points and pushed them over the 700-point mark for the first time in school history.

Junior Elliott Keefer, who already won the 100 breaststroke championship Friday, led the entire way before just getting edged to finish second in the 200 breaststroke. His time of 1:54.13 broke the school record by more than a second and it also went under the NCAA "A" standard. Sam Pelkey was third and Daniel Malnik was seventh for a triple treat final. Justin Farra also scored, finishing 10th.

Ohio State placed another trio of finalists in the 200 butterfly. Niksa Roki, Quincy Lee and Luke Stirton combined for 38 points with fifth, sixth and eighth-place finishes. Roki set a new school record with his time of 1:45.43. And so heading into the diving competition, Ohio State had its Big Ten title clinched with a commanding 136-point lead.

Diving for the Team

On the platform diving event, senior Wes Wieser finished second to bank 17 more team points. The total gave Panzano's divers 101 points toward the team's championship score.

It should be noted that Ryan Jefferson tried to score platform points. The senior exercise science/pre-med major had not dove off the platform – he chose to dive off the five –meter tower – in several years, but he wanted to try and contribute points – any points – to help the Buckeyes' cause. He didn't have to dive, but he did it anyway, for the team. And it didn't matter that he didn't score. Because the fact he tried was a reflection of the effort and the spirit that enveloped this team and enabled Ohio State to win the 2010 championship.

The 400 freestyle relay team capped the evening by taking third in a time of 2:54.65, yet another school record for Ohio State, it's fifth of the evening and 15th of the meet. Taking what turned out to be victory laps for the Buckeyes was the team of Elber, Lincoln Fahrbach, Phillips and Olson.

"What has been really special about this meet is we have a great, great group of guys who were clearly competing for each other," Wadley said. "And it gave the guys a great feeling about what they were doing and who they were doing it with.

"There's a saying that a man who stands alone on top of the mountain is alone. But when you are on top of that mountain with friends, then you are celebrating with friends."

Let the party begin.

MEET NOTES AND OTHER RANDOM THOUGHTS...

Just a hint of what life was like in 1956: coach Bill Wadley was born; the top song was "Memories are Made of This" by Dean Martin; postage stamps cost $.03; Elvis Presley emerges as a world rock star; "I Love Lucy" was the top television show; a gallon of gas cost $.22; typical rent was $88 per month; a new car cost $2,000.

2010 Big Ten champion Buckeyes included George Markovic (500 free), Elliott Keefer (100 breaststroke), Andrew Elliott (100 backstroke), Stefan Sigrist (1650 free) and the 200 freestyle relay team of Joel Elber, Lincoln Fahrbach, Andrew Olson and Tim Phillips.

NCAA A cuts at this meet – meaning these Buckeyes will be competing for sure at the NCAA championships at the McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion March 25-27 – included the 800 free relay (Markovic, Olson, Stephen Sakaris and Phillips), 500 freestyle (Markovic), 100 backstroke (Elliott), 1650 freestyle (Sigrist) and 200 breaststroke (Keefer).

Eight Buckeyes were named All-Big Ten: Elber, Elliott, Fahrbach, Keefer, Markovic, Olson, Phillips and Sigrist.

Four were named second-team All-Big Ten: Andrew Bretscher, Sam Pelkey, Stephen Sakaris and Wes Wieser.

The last time Ohio State outscored Michigan at a Big Ten championships: 1978.

Ohio State's winning total of 860.50 points was the second highest point total in championships history. Way to go Bucks!

McCORKLE AQUATIC PAVILION

Considered one of the finest competition pools and diving wells in the nation, the 1,750-seat Bill and Mae McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion's new technology provides a venue for some of the fastest times and best diving in the country.

The facility, in the heart of campus and adjacent to three other world-class facilities – Ohio Stadium, Thompson Library and the Recreation and Physical Activity Center – has earned a reputation for fast water in its five years. In fact, that's what the Columbus Dispatch wrote about the facility in an in-depth article titled "Built for Speed."

The article stated that "it's not one thing that makes this pool fast, but a collection of things – the depth, number and width of lanes, deep gutters, and water inlets at the bottom of the pool – that reduce waves."

And the July 2007 issue of Aquatics International magazine stated this about McCorkle:

"...a state-of-the-art competition pool loaded with the latest technology sets a university apart from the competition."

Completed in the summer of 2005 and dedicated October 14, 2005, the McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion is the newest addition to Ohio State's top-notch athletics facilities. The Pavilion consists of the Mike Peppe Natatorium and the Ron O'Brien Diving Well. Holding nearly 1.56 million gallons of water in the entire facility, the Pavilion is part of Ohio State's new Recreation and Physical Activity Center (RPAC).

The McCorkle Aquatic Pavilion has already hosted numerous championship competitions. Here is a look at the championship slate to date:

- 2010 U.S. Short Course National Championships
- 2010 Men's NCAA Championships
- 2010 Men's Big Ten Championships

SWIMMING COACH BILL WADLEY

22ND SEASON

Bill Wadley, who is in his 22nd season as Ohio State's men's swimming coach, is anticipating another outstanding year in the pool for the Scarlet and Gray. And why not? His team is coming off back-to-back outstanding performances at the Big Ten championships - winning the championship in 2010 and finishing 2nd in 2009 - and with subsequent NCAA finishes those years of ninth and 15th, respectively.

His 2010-11 team returns 13 swimming point scorers from the 2010 Big Ten championships, including Big Ten champions Elliott Keefer (100 breaststroke), Andrew Elliott (100 backstroke) and 200 freestyle relay team members Lincoln Fahrbach and Tim Phillips.

Wadley's Buckeyes get it down outside of the pool, too. In 2009-10 for instance, the team had a remarkable season in the classroom with the fourth-highest team grade point average (GPA) nationally - 3.37 - and earned the distinction of being a Collegiate Swim Coaches Association of America Scholar-Athlete Team. Last year:

Four Buckeyes were named to the Big Ten's Distinguished Scholars list with GPAs above 3.70;

Andrew Elliott was recognized as the Division I men's swimming and diving first-ever winner of the NCAA's Elite 88 award, signifying the student-athlete with the highest grade-point average in the competition.

32 student-athletes were honored as an OSU Scholar-Athlete; and 27 swimmers and divers who are at least a sophomore eligibility-wise being named to the Academic All-Big Ten Conference team.

This spring Wadley was named Technical Swimming Chairman for the International University Sports Federation (FISU). It is a position of utmost importance from an administrative and operational standpoint for the swimming competitions at the World University Games. Starting with the 2011 World University Games in Shenzhen, China, Wadley will be the swimming expert for the world, ensuring that the host country sets up and then runs a first-class swimming competition.

The position is appropriate for Wadley because making sure athletes receive a quality, first-rate experience is something he does every day as coach of the Buckeyes. That goal reached a pinnacle of realization this year as he coached Ohio State to a stunning and decisive win at the Big Ten championships for the school's first Big Ten crown in 54 years. He was named the 2010 Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year for his team's efforts.

Wadley, a past president of the American Swimming Coaches Association and who is now in his sixth term on the ASCA board, has coached 15 Olympians and his teams have been ranked in the NCAA Top 25 for 18 of the past 21 seasons. Buckeye swimmers and divers have qualified for the NCAA championships in 19 of Wadley's 21 years as coach.

Wadley has compiled a dual-meet record of 186-34 at Ohio State and has a career record of 210-44 in 24 seasons as a college head coach. He has produced more than 35 world-ranked swimmers and 15 of his student-athletes have reached the Olympics. Two Buckeyes competed at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China: Itai Chammah and Niksa Roki.

Wadley has coached 15 individual Big Ten champions, including four in 2010 and, overall, he has mentored 25 Big Ten champions at three Big Ten schools.

Wadley has represented the United States as a coach on numerous occasions. He has coached the 1986 Olympic Festival and the 1988 and 1992 Gold Medal teams comprised of top non-collegiate swimmers in preparation for the Olympics. In 1991, Wadley coached the U.S. team at the World University Games and in 1993 he was coach of the U.S. National Team training camp. In 1998, he was chosen as the head men's coach for the Goodwill Games. The team went on to set seven Goodwill Game records. Two summers ago, Wadley was an assistant coach for USA Swimming for the World University Games in Bangkok, Thailand.

Outside the collegiate ranks, Wadley coached the only double gold medalist in both the 1987 and 1993 World University Games for the United States. He has coached swimmers to the Olympic level of competition for the past five Olympiads. Recent Ohio State swimmers have won a total of three gold, two silver and five bronze medals in international competition. Marko Strahija qualified for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney for his native country of Croatia, finishing ninth in the 200 backstroke.

Wadley came to Ohio State after two years as the men's swimming coach at Michigan State. He also served as the MSU women's coach during his last season, guiding both teams to Top 20 NCAA finishes. This year marks Wadley's 26th as a coach in the Big Ten Conference. He started his coaching career at the University of Alabama under the tutelage of five time U.S. Olympic coach Don Gambriel.

Wadley also guided the nationally ranked Joliet (Ill.) Jets swim club to a second-place finish at the YMCA nationals, where his team broke nine national records.

Wadley's system, which emphasizes a strong work ethic, discipline and the power of positive thinking, has helped the Buckeyes break 99 school records while producing 39 All-Americans. His swimmers have set 16 national and 11 Big Ten records through the years.

"The foundation of our program is technique and quality and we continually look for opportunities to help our athletes improve," Wadley said. "Challenging athletes to train and compete at the highest level is our primary goal."

During the off-season, Wadley is involved with swimming at all levels working and hosting camps and clinics around America and specifically in the Buckeye State. Wadley is serving his second year as president of the American Swimming Coaches Association and is a six-time board member. He is also a Board Member of USA Swimming and is a frequent speaker at coaching clinics across the world.

Wadley also has been chosen to run the NCAA Yes Clinic twice and serves on the NCAA peer mentoring committee.

His teams also are active in the community. In previous years, members of the squad helped train Jason Andrus for the Special Olympics. Andrus went on to win two gold medals at the 2003 World Special Olympics in Dublin Ireland. For their work with Andrus, the men's swimming team was named the 2002-03 "Outstanding Support Organization," a statewide award recognizing achievement and contribution to the Special Olympics.

Wadley is a 1979 graduate of Austin Peay State University. He did graduate work at the University of Alabama. He and his wife, Gail, an athletics trainer at the OSU Sports Medicine Center, reside in Columbus. Bill has two sons; Brian and Michael.

DIVING COACH VINCE PANZANO

Mike Peppe. Ron O'Brien. Vince Panzano. The strong and respected Ohio State University diving program has had only three coaches in its remarkable history and it only seems right that all three are Ohio State graduates. Peppe started the program and coached 44 NCAA champions, including O'Brien, and 25 Olympians. O'Brien coached eight NCAA champions and eight Olympians before turning the program over to Panzano, who was one of O'Brien's divers between 1970-72. Panzano, who has coached 12 NCAA champions and eight Olympians, has been coach at Ohio State since 1977 and now, 33 years later, he is the dean of all Ohio State head coaches.

One of the most highly respected diving coaches, the three-time Olympic coach Panzano most recently guided Katie Bell to a U.S. Diving national championship on the 10-meter platform in August 2009 and in 2008 coached Chelsea Davis and Sean Moore to national championships on the 3-meter and 10-meter platform events, respectively, at the NCAA championship meets.

Panzano is a 1973 graduate of Ohio State. He began his coaching career at the University of Tennessee in 1973 and returned to his alma mater to succeed O'Brien in 1978.

In his 38 years as a Division I coach, Panzano has produced one world champion, one junior world champion, two Olympic medalists, 23 U.S. diving champions, 12 NCAA champions, 16 NCAA runners-up, 54 Big Ten champions and 86 All-Americans. Panzano also has coached Ohio State and McDonald's Diving to six national team titles. He has had divers on five of the last six Olympic Teams.

Panzano has been named Big Ten Diving Coach of the Year nine times throughout his career, including the 2007 season when his men's divers established a never-before honor of having three different divers sweep the three diving events: Kellen Harkness won the three-meter springboard, Burkley Showe took first on the one-meter board and Wes Wieser won on the 10-meter platform. It was the first time a school has swept the three diving events since 1996 and the first time ever that the sweep was completed by three different athletes from the same school.

The 2007 Big Ten Coach of the Year award was Panzano's sixth on the men's side with the others coming in 1987-92-93-02-04. He has been named women's diving coach of the year three times, in 1993-96-00.

Panzano has twice been awarded the "Mike Peppe Award," as U.S. Diving's outstanding coach. Panzano also has been selected NCAA Diving Coach of the Year four times. In 1996, Panzano was inducted into Ohio State University's Athletics Hall of Fame.

Panzano has a rich coaching experience in diving on the international level. He has served as the Olympic coach on three separate occasions. He has served as coach for the Pan American Team, a World Championship and in World Cup competitions. He also has been actively involved in coaching Junior Olympic divers.

Aside from coaching, Panzano served as meet director for the 1976 Olympic Trials. He hosted the first-ever United States vs. China dual diving meet in 1980 at Ohio State and in 1981 he hosted the indoor U.S. Diving Championships, also held at Ohio State. He has served on the United

A native of King of Prussia, Pa., Panzano and his wife, Phyllis, have two sons, Vincent and Bryan.

Coach Award of Excellence to Panzano

Panzano was honored with the Coach Award of Excellence from USA Diving in 2009 (along with co-recipient Jeff Huber, from Indiana) after his divers' performances at the AT&T National Diving Championships in August in Tallahassee, Fla.

Senior Katie Bell captured a national championship on platform - the 23rd USA Diving national champion for Panzano - and five other divers turned in top eight performances: Sean Moore captured a bronze medal after placing third on the 10-meter platform with Wes Wieser sixth; Ryan Jefferson was seventh on the three-meter; Bianca Alvarez was fifth on three-meter with Kristen Asman seventh.

Panzano is a four-time NCAA Diving Coach of the Year and he has twice been awarded USA Diving's "Mike Peppe Award" - named after the legendary Ohio State coach - as the national Coach of the Year. He has coached 12 NCAA champions in addition to his 23 U.S. national champions, 10 Olympians, 86 All-Americans and 54 Big Ten Conference champions.

Ohio State: 62 NCAA National Champions

The 2008 NCAA national championships won by Chelsea Davis, who was named Tri-Diver of the Year after the national championships, and Sean Moore represent the 61st and 62nd individual diving national titles for Ohio State and increased coach Vince Panzano's national champions total to 12, with 11 of those champions Buckeyes (he coached one NCAA champion at Tennessee).

ASSISTANT SWIMMING COACH CHRIS PETERS

FIRST SEASON

Chris Peters is in his first season as assistant swimming coach for the Ohio State University men's swimming program. The 1999 graduate of the University of Missouri replaced Jessen Book, who landed his dream head coaching position at Kenyon College, this summer. Two years prior, Book had replaced John Klinge, who parlayed his Ohio State assistant's position into his dream head coaching position at Purdue.

Peters isn't thinking about his next position, although he is accomplished enough and highly thought-of as a swimming coach to already have been selected to interview for one head coaching position. He's happy to be a Buckeye, and is looking forward to helping coach Bill Wadley and the Ohio State Buckeyes defend their 2010 Big Ten championship this season.

Peters has six years of collegiate coaching experience in his wake already. After a record-setting swimming career and graduating from Missouri with a degree in English, he spent a brief amount of time working for ESPN before embarking on a coaching career that started as the head coach at Phoenix (Ariz.) Country Day High School and included senior age group coaching responsibilities with the Arizona Marlins Swim Club.

The eight-time Big 12 Championship finalist in the 100 and 200 backstroke events, and school record holder in the 200 backstroke, returned to Missouri in June of 2004 to begin his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. He was named associate head coach of the men's and women's programs at Missouri four years later and held the title for the next two years.

Peters coached distance freestylers, IM and backstrokers while at Missouri, and it comes as no surprise that his backstroke student-athletes now hold six of the Top 10 fastest men's times at Missouri and five of the Top 10 women's times.

His recruiting efforts were most successful, as the number of Tigers making NCAA standards increased each year, as did the number of new school records. And from 2006 through 2009, each of the Tiger recruiting classes for men and women were regarded as Top 25-caliber with the women reaching a high ranking of 11th and the men 16th.

A qualifier for the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials, Peters is a native of Eureka, Mo. He and his wife, Marianne, an Indiana University graduate, have a four-year-old daughter, Sydney, and a two-year-old son, Cole.

DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

The varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and is 36 sports strong – 16 for men, 17 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $100 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Eugene Smith. Just the eighth athletics director in Ohio State history, Smith has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 1,000 student-athletes participated in 2009-10.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with state-of-the-art facilities, such as Bill Davis Stadium, Value City Arena at the Jerome Schottenstein Center, Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

WHAT IS A BUCKEYE?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree. According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6-foot-4-inch man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEY

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloopy).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

TBDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 19 of the last 21 years. The squad was 15th at the 2008 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
 While our hearts rebounding thrill, With joy which death alone can still.
 Summer's heat or Winter's cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll;
 Time and change will surely show, How firm thy friendship O-HI-O.

Gene Smith is in his sixth year as director of athletics at The Ohio State University. He was named to his current position on March 5, 2005. On March 17, 2008, Gordon Gee, president of The Ohio State University, promoted Smith to university assistant vice president/director of athletics and he has since been named associate vice president/director of athletics.

Smith is the eighth person to hold the athletics director position at Ohio State and the first African-American to do so. He previously served as director of athletics at Arizona State, Iowa State, and Eastern Michigan Universities, and is entering his 26th year in the role.

At Ohio State, the 54-year old Smith oversees one of the nation's largest and most successful college athletic programs. The Buckeyes have 36 fully-funded varsity sports and more than 1,000 student-athletes. The department of athletics is completely self supporting and receives no university funds, tax dollars or student fees. In fiscal year 2009-10, the department transferred nearly $29 million in assessments to the university, including nearly $14 million in grant-in-aid reimbursement. Smith was named 2010 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year for the past year.

Upon arriving at Ohio State, Smith quickly established himself as a respected and thoughtful leader, both within the university and the community. In the spring of 2007, he unveiled a five-year strategic plan, reflecting the department's goals and values. The strategic planning process, inclusive of the entire department, emphasized the development of the total student-athlete.

Under Smith's leadership, The Ohio State Department of Athletics was honored in the spring of 2008 with the Diversity in Athletics Award in the category of Overall Excellence in Diversity. Smith accepted the honor at the 43rd annual National Association of College Directors of Athletics Convention in Dallas.

Shortly after Ohio State was honored as a department for its dedication to diversity, Smith was individually recognized for his contribution to the sport of football.

The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame, announced in June of 2008 the recipients of the NFF's 2008 Major Awards. Smith was honored officially Dec. 9, 2008 in New York with the John L. Toner Award. Presented annually, the Toner Award is given to a director of athletics who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

Smith is on the Governing Board of Trustees of the Lincoln Theatre Association. He was named to the position by the Franklin County (Ohio) Board of Commissioners. The three-year appointment was effective March 10, 2009.

Nationally, Smith is involved with USA Basketball as a member of the Finance & Audit Committee. That appointment was made March 25, 2009. The Finance & Audit Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board regarding the organization's financial investments, reviewing independent auditors for USA Basketball and, if necessary, oversight, implementation and compliance with the USA Basketball Code of Ethics.

Smith has an exemplary record of national leadership and service.

In 2007, he served as president of the Division 1-A Athletic Directors Association. He is entering his fourth year on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee and will serve as chair of the committee for the 2010-11 academic year. Smith was recently named to the newly created Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, a 27-member panel charged with developing strategies to enhance academic performance and graduation rates in Division I men's basketball.

Smith is past president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and was that organization's first African-American president. He also has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Committee on Infractions, the NCAA Executive Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the President's Commission Liaison Committee, the NCAA Baseball Academic Enhancement Task Force, and the National Football Foundation Honors Court, among others.

In recognition of his service, Smith was named by Black Enterprise Magazine as one of the "50 Most Powerful African American in College Sports." In 2007, he was named to NACDA's inaugural "Legends Class," and was also named Athletic Administrator of the Year by the Black Coaches Association (BCA). In 2002-03, he received NACDA's AD of the Year honors for the Division 1-A West Region.

Smith grew up in Cleveland, Ohio, and attended the University of Notre Dame on a football scholarship. He played four years of football as a defensive end for the Irish and was a member of the 1973 Associated Press national championship team. Smith received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Notre Dame in 1977. Following graduation, he joined the Notre Dame coaching staff under Dan Devine and remained in that capacity until 1981. The 1977 Notre Dame team captured the undisputed national championship.

Smith left Notre Dame following the 1981 season to accept a marketing position with IBM. He returned to college athletics in April of 1983 as assistant athletics director at Eastern Michigan University. In 1985, he was appointed as interim director of athletics at Eastern, a position he held until 1986 when he became the director on a full-time basis.

In 1993, Smith was named director of athletics at Iowa State University. He moved to Arizona State as director of athletics in 2000.

As a former college athlete and coach, Smith is passionate about the well being of student-athletes. "We want to create an environment for our student-athletes to be successful academically, athletically and socially," he says. "The student-athlete experience provides teachable moments that prepare young women and men for success in life."

Smith is active in the Columbus community and is a member of the board of the YMCA of Central Ohio. He also is active with the Bell Center for African American males on Ohio State's campus.

Smith and his wife, Sheila, have four children: Matt, Nicole, Lindsey and Summer, and two grandchildren: Marshall and Steele. Sheila, a 1976 Canadian Olympian in basketball, holds a doctorate in higher education administration and is an associate vice president for development at Ohio State.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

JAMES E. DELANY Big Ten Conference Commissioner

Only the Big Ten's fifth commissioner since its founding in 1896, James E. Delany enters his 21st year in that role. He has led the Big Ten through significant periods of change and growth that have helped the conference maintain its preeminent position as one of the nation's leaders in providing quality athletic and academic experiences for young people.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $100 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- Big Ten universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, the Big Ten Network and CBS College Sports Network provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.
- In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days. The Big Ten Network is now available to more than 70 million homes nationally through agreements with more than 250 cable/satellite affiliates and appears in 23 of the top 25 national media markets.
- Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

NATION'S BEST FANS

- Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with more than 8.7 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2008-09 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.
- Over the last 31 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance. For the past 17 seasons, women's basketball has been ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in attendance.
- Big Ten institutions have more than 4.2 million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

- During the 2008-09 season, the Big Ten claimed five team national championships, including titles for Iowa wrestling, Penn State fencing and women's volleyball, Northwestern lacrosse and Wisconsin women's ice hockey. In addition, Big Ten teams finished as the national runners-up in men's basketball and men's gymnastics.
- Big Ten teams have claimed at least three national titles in nine of the last 10 seasons (1999-2000 through 2008-09). Over the last decade, the Big Ten has produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, cross country, fencing, field hockey, football, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, synchronized swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERSHIP IN GENDER EQUITY

- Since 1992, the Big Ten has shown a strong commitment to increasing opportunities for women in sports and exposure of women's athletics by establishing a multi-phased gender equity program. In that time, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams, while expanding the number of women's championships to 13 by adding field hockey, soccer and rowing.
- As part of the gender equity action plan, the Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male/female participation goals for student-athletes in 1992. The Big Ten initiated a five-year plan for conference members to commit to a 60 percent/40 percent male-to-female student-athlete participation ratio. This was achieved as a conference by 1997 and 2000 was the first year that all institutions individually met this goal. As part of its commitment to gender equity, the Council of Presidents/Chancellors annually monitors this policy. During the 2007-08 year, all institutions were in compliance and the conference averaged a 52/48 male-to-female participation ratio.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- In 1989, the Big Ten created a community outreach program—SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday), which partners the conference with two Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performances. What began with one school, two grade levels and five classrooms has grown in its 20th year to include grades kindergarten through eighth, encompassing all classes and students at Melody School and Louis Armstrong School.
- Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund", and the $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular-season television opportunities.
- The Big Ten has established numerous community programs surrounding the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, including the Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award Scholarship, the Big Ten Career Fair, the Hoops Day 5K and a partnership with the Pink Ribbon Connection, a local breast cancer organization.

NCAA COMPLIANCE REGULATIONS

The Ohio State University Athletics Compliance Office is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates everyone about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Big Ten, and institutional rules. We strive to create a “compliance conscience” within the university and throughout the community.

The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics and furthers the mission of The Ohio State University. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At Ohio State, the athletics compliance office works within the department of athletics and the university to ensure Ohio State’s compliance with all applicable rules. In doing so, the compliance office is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospects, student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with these rules. These systems are designed to monitor rules pertaining to recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards, extra benefits, ethical conduct, amateurism, agents, employment, occasional meals and the playing and practice seasons for each sport; and
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules to the appropriate governing authority.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports Ohio State athletics;
- Made any financial contributions to any area of Ohio State;
- Made any annual or lifetime membership commitment to a booster organization;
- Been involved with the recruitment of a prospect;
- Provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete or their relatives or friends;
- Been involved in promoting Ohio State’s athletic program;
- Provided or helped to arrange employment for student-athletes;
- Participated in a group loosely associated with the athletics department (e.g., “Friends Of” group);
- Been a season ticket holder.

ONCE A BOOSTER ... ALWAYS A BOOSTER.

According to the NCAA, once an individual has been identified as a booster, he or she retains this identity forever.

If you do not meet the definition of a booster, you can still be classified as a booster if you provide benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends and any of the following statements are true.

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete became a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety because of his or her athletic ability or reputation; or
- The pattern of giving increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a skilled athlete.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

A recruiting inducement or extra benefit is any special arrangement by an Ohio State University employee or booster to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible extra benefits include but are not limited to:

- cash or any type of gifts;
- loans or cosigning of loans;
- vehicle or the use of a vehicle;
- payment for or arrangement of transportation costs;
- free or reduced cost goods or services;
- free or reduced cost housing;
- concert or sporting event tickets; or
- any item not expressly permitted under NCAA rules

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

Ohio State is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends, Ohio State may be subject to penalties, even if the student-athlete has completed his or her eligibility. The prospect or student-athlete who accepts an impermissible benefit jeopardizes his or her eligibility for intercollegiate competition. A booster who provides an impermissible benefit may be disassociated from the university's athletics program. Disassociation results in a loss of all benefits or privileges offered by the department of athletics and may involve other penalties as appropriate.

GOT QUESTIONS? ASK COMPLIANCE.

The provided information is a brief overview of compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective and current student-athletes. It is not an exhaustive discussion. If you have any questions about any NCAA, Big Ten or institutional rules, please contact the Athletic Compliance Office at (614) 292-2681 or via email at compliance@buckeyes.ath.ohio-state.edu.

MIKE PEPPE

Swimming and Diving Coach – 1931-63

Mike Peppe was the first swimming and diving coach at Ohio State and served in that capacity from 1931 until he retired from the position in 1963. During his 33 years as coach of the Scarlet and Gray, Peppe and Ohio State won 33 major championships: 12 Big Ten, 11 NCAA and 10 NAAU titles. In dual meets, Peppe won 173 and lost 37. Twelve different seasons, his teams were undefeated.

During his years at Ohio State, Peppe-coached swimmers and divers won 312 individual and relay championships, five Olympic gold medals and had 24 Olympic team berths. Twice (in 1947 and 1956) Peppe's Ohio State divers swept the boards 1, 2, 3, 4 in the NCAA diving finals.

The Buckeye coach also contributed to the United States National Teams as the diving coach of the 1948 Olympic Games in London and the 1952 Olympic Games in Helsinki. Peppe also was the head coach of the US team at the first official Pan American Games in 1951 at Buenos Aires.

No swimming and diving coach had a better record in the 1950's than Peppe. In the four Olympic Games following World War II until Peppe retired, Ohio State contributed 19 of the 92 members to the U.S. Olympic team. Five of the 25 members that made up the 1952 team were Buckeyes.

Peppe graduated from Ohio State in 1927 and earned a Master's Degree from Columbia in 1928. He became known around the world as the coach of more Olympic divers than any other man. During one period, 20 divers who studied under Peppe, won 96 of 125 available national titles.

RON O'BRIEN

Diving Coach – 1963-78

At Ohio State, Ron O'Brien did it all. As a six-time letterman in gymnastics and diving he achieved NCAA (1-meter in 1959) and AAU (3-meter in 1961) national championships under Coach Mike Peppe. He was also part of a top professional water show act and accomplished all of this while earning his bachelor's degree in 1959, his master's degree in 1961 and his Ph.D. in 1967.

O'Brien went on to become a top college, club, national and international diving coach, winning a total of 87 national team championships at Minnesota (1962-63), Ohio State (1963-78), Mission Viejo, California (1978-85), Mission Bay, Florida (1985-1990), and Fort Lauderdale (1991-96).

In his 34 years of coaching, his divers finished in first place 196 times, in second place 113 times and third place 106 times in Olympic, world, national, NCAA and Big Ten Conference competitions. O'Brien was a six-time coach at the World Championships, a four-time coach at the Pan American Games and a seven-time World Cup coach. O'Brien was an eight-time U.S. Olympic Diving Coach (seven times head coach) from 1968-1996. His divers captured five gold, three silver and four bronze medals in Olympic competition. In the 1982 World Championships his divers swept all four gold medals and in 1986 his divers won all twelve individual U.S. national titles. He has coached everyone from beginners to the famed Greg Louganis.

O'Brien has won numerous coaching awards, including the Mike Peppe Award (which honors U.S.A. Diving's most Outstanding Senior Diving Coach each year) 14 times during his career. He has been inducted into the Ohio State Athletics, The International Swimming and Pennsylvania Sports Halls of Fame. He retired from active coaching in 1996 after having coached more champions than any coach in history.
